Acoustic original music influenced by folk, blues, and swing; tunes that celebrate life with a generous helping of hard-edged social commentary and a side of humor. 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Progressive Folk, FOLK: Modern Folk Details: Guitarist, singer/songwriter Burl Sheldon has been performing for 30 years. He's opened for Cheryl Wheeler, Laura Love, Livingston Taylor, John Hammond, and The Wilders. His live performances have been broadcast on West Coast Live and River City Folk. His 1996 CD release, Tidal Lore, was an independent feature on NPR's World Cafe syndicated radio show with David Dye. Busy Makin' Money is an eclectic collection of new music by Sheldon and his wife Nancy Berland. Broad musical influences include swing, delta blues, old time, reggae, and jazz. The CD features stand-out performances by some of Alaska's finest acoustic musicians. Instrumentation includes: fingerstyle and rhythm guitar, 5-string banjo, mandolin, fiddle, acoustic and electric bass, percussion, piano, tenor sax and trombone. Sheldon's rich baritone stands alone on some tunes and is complimented by strong female harmony vocals on others. Sheldon and Berland have deep roots in Haines, Alaska, where they live, work, and play.
