Thanks for your support. Will Jacobsen Duct Tape Mummy Barefoot One Music Music Description: Duct Tape Mummy's "Bindings" gets you all tied up in a dance/trance/dnb/techno/acoustic mix that focuses on funky bass grooves and delicious movements and melodies. As an added twist, Duct Tape Mummy's creator, Will Jacobsen, uses his vocal talents on 4 of the disc's tracks! In comparison to DTM's previous releases, this one is a bit more aggressive and dance oriented. Will's lyrics will definately give you an insight as to why he does what he does on the track "I Was Born This Way." He also reveals to the world that he loves Salma Hayek! Yes, if you recall, he loved Lucy Liu on his last disc, "Erotomania," and he still does...but this is different....! "Bindings" also features a new MummyGirl! Her name is Shellie, and she was beautifully captured (in duct tape and other things...)through the lens of photographer Christina Clusiau. I'd buy this CD just for the pictures.... Also, the Duct Tape Mummy website has been updated!! Go take a look by clicking on the link on the left! Will is already underway on another project and will soon be keeping busy with mastering a CD for modern/classical pianist, David Alstead! Check David out too... right here on CD Baby! DJ's - Please contact Will about mixes and re-mixes of DTM material!! BUY THIS CD, PLEASE and Enjoy!
