Details: Don Hooper and Steve Beckwith play a cross between Louisiana/ Texas and upstate New York style folk/country. Vocally, Hooper has a Johnny Cash/Willie Nelson style and Beckwith a Chris Smither/Jerry Jeff Walker style. While Don flat-picks and finger-picks, Steve weaves through each song with intricate lead riffs. The combination sets them well apart from other duos. Hooper played upstate New York coffee houses and New Orleans and was known as the Woodstock Traveler in the late 60s. Beckwith has played lead guitar for groups on the west coast and Massachusetts, and makes acoustic guitars at Beckwith Strings, in Bolton Massachusetts. Hooper and Beckwith bring back the 60s coffee house vibe with lively guitar picking and rafter-raising harmonies, playing vintage guitars, custom guitars, foot-stomp board, rack harmonica, dobros, resonators, and banjo. Hooper and Beckwith songs are rich with unforgettable lyrics and stories. We love listening to every one of the 14 songs. -JukeVillage/ Unplugged Records. The choruss are infectious! - Taxi
