"What is Sauce?" you may ask. Sauce is the stuff that makes your head nod, your booty shake and your mind quiver with aural goodness. A quintet from the New Jersey Shore, Jaski has spent the last few years playing venues and festivals all over the East Coast, spreading their own mixture of Funk-Jazz music across the land. Jaski has two albums of original music, dozens of reliable and surprising cover tunes, and new songs are always in development. Their music can be heard on numerous New Jersey radio stations, a compilation album, the Harley Davidson 100th Anniversary DVD, and elsewhere..... Jaski has shared bills with numerous national acts such as: Soulive, Medeski Martin Wood, Topaz, Keller Williams, Karl Denson, Jimmy Cliff, The Roots and many others. With their sophomore album, Jersey funksters Jaski have laid down the dirtiest, nastiest grooves for your enjoyment. From the furious hard funk of "Filthy Manor" to the smooth groove of "Good to You" to the latin sauce of "Breeze". Jaski is known for their big group vocals, high energy and jazzy turnarounds that will delight ears as well as your ass. Lew Rosengrant on drums, and Alex McDaniel on guitar and vocals, and Damien Ball on bass keep the groove moving while John Hopper on flute and Steve Tuzeneu on tenor sax sing out sweet horn lines. Guest appearances by Eric Safka on Organ and Ron Alvarado on Congas brings this album together.
