Fierce comical revolutionary rap that electrifies and inspires. 12 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: West Coast Rap Details: JULIE FUCKING POTTER is a fierce, spiritual, revolutionary MC shattering the inexorable confines of the rap game. With empowering political rants, candid pleas from the abandoned sub-class, and piercing comical wit, JFP inspires, commands, and captivates you, all with the first 16 bars. Her lyrical prowess charges, declares, and ignites, while caressing the intoxicating melodious beats from within. As a zealous stand-up comic and improviser, Julie is well-versed in the ways of the word, and the art of performance. Leaning heavily on her contempt for the powers that be, JFP will snatch you out of your own apathy, and coerce you into action. She blasts the arrogant consumer, preaches all inclusive love, and bemoans rigid societal limitations; all while making-out with her girl and smoking a fat one. Growing up in the suburban cul-de-sac consciousness, JFPs uncommon affinity took flight in the early years of her adolescence. Listening to West Coast rap pioneers like NWA, DJ Quik, Tupac, Suga Free, E-40, Snoop, and many others, definitely had an affect on the this Bakersfield born gal. Addicted to their raw expression, JFP soon found her own voice first in the form of poetry, but mixing them with hard hitting beats was only a matter of time. With the release of Dr. Dre.s The Chronic (1992) and Snoop Doggs DoggyStyle (1993) rap was reborn with and enticing fresh sound that would impact an entire generation. JFP was among the crop of kids who shouted Fuck the police, It aint no fun if the homies cant have none, and I wanna get high, so high. She represents the essential battles of Generation What the fuck?! JFPs lucid lyrics reach moms and mofos alike. Her highly anticipated debut album Exodus is now available. In addition, JFP is one of the artist on the first ever HOMOREVOLUTION TOUR through the South West beginning in late March. The tour features Pick Up the Mic stars Deadlee, Q-Boy, Jonny Dangerous as well as Delacruz, Salvimex, Bigg Nugg, and many more. Check the dates at homorevolution and get your self a ticket.
