Details: Sitting quietly in a concert hall, somewhere in the southern hemisphere, Justin James is about to record his first note with the knowledge that he has only several hours to complete an entire album with minimal preparation, having spent the last decade in and out of piano bars. Justin James is a classical and contemporary pianist with a deep affinity for the music of the 19th and 20th century periods, especially that of Chopin, Debussy, Scriabin and Rachmaninoff. This handpicked selection of "timeless" music from that period, clearly illustrates how easy it is to fall in love with the piano. Beginning with the expressive and ornamental Nocturne of Chopin, we are taken on a poetic musical journey featuring the delicate Minute Waltz and two Preludes which include the elegant Raindrop, culminating in two of Chopin's most cherished and technically difficult Etudes. From there, we melt into the sonorous tranquillity of Debussy's first Arabesque and second Image, showcasing the natural acoustics of both instrument and venue. Two "Chopinesque" Etudes from the lyrical Scriabin transport us to a climactic finale with several scintillating Preludes and the fourth Moment Musical of Rachmaninoff, highlighting the incredible depth and power of the grand piano. Whether you are in the car or the office, at a restaurant or studying for exams, download this to your iPod and experience it whenever you want to get away from the noise.
