Clark's songwriting reflects an original spin on pop music and features strong lyrics that delve deeply into love from all points of view. The result is an album of dazzling creativity, unmatched variety and smart subtlety that very few artists have accomplished. Musically it merges majestic orchestrations with the minimal roots-direction. The mix of songs like "Worlds Apart" with "Somthin' Growin' Out My Head", crates a balancing act between opposites which is interesting and just right. One might have expected a schizophrenic album because of the variety in the music and the lyrical themes, but in its own unique way, its a delicious 40-minute long flow of music that simply asks to be played from start till finish. The album contains 13 original songs in which Clark shares lead vocals with Sherry Joyce, an artist who previously sang on several of Ken Clark's albums, most notably, GET IT OFF ME.
