Soul with a twist of Hip Hop 14 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix, HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style
Details: This is some nice, soulful R and B with a twist of Hip Hop. Morris J is a strong singer with something for the clubs and something for the lovers. This is perfect for those who want a little something different. You can hear Morris's passion and raw talent in each song. Valenti's corner is hot too (tracks 10-14)! It's the producers own little corner of some of his instrumentals. All in all, these are some guys who are very "hungry" and love music. They understand that there is no "set" way to do music. Music is an expression, it's your art, it's your talent, so they do it how they want to do it with no outside influences telling them what to do! Thank you for checkin' it out!
