..... Singer-songwriter Bernadette McCallion and songwriter-producer Rich Gaglia have teamed up for a new electronica project called Pitch Black Dream. This limited edition CD is available exclusively through CD Baby. Get your copy while they are available. As a solo artist, Bernadette's music has appeared on NBC, MTV, XM Satellite Radio, syndicated radio, and in indie films. Rich Gaglia is a NYC based producer and front man for the rock-alternative band Psych! Bernadette and Rich's cover the Doors' "Love Me Two Times" was chosen for Skipping Discs compilation "Love Her Madly: New Women Artists Cover The Doors." (Also available at CD Baby.) With the success of that recording, the pair decided to write and record new material as a duo and the result is "Never Going Home." Together, they are forging a new sound in electronic music - dreamy, beat-driven, and hypnotic with a dark edge. Russ Elliot of Musical Discoveries called it "Sweet, sensual and evocative..." Ben Ohmart of Music Dish says, "Pitch Black Dream wants you to relax. Let the eyes close. Let the sex roll..." The track 'Invitation Only' was just featured on The Shield, on FX. Nine of the ten tracks were featured in multiple episodes of MTV's reality drama, Camp Jim. The track 'Remember This' was featured in MTV's Real World Paris. Tracks from "Never Going Home" are in rotation on XM Satellite radio and were recently featured the national radio show Women In Music with Laney Goodman. The title song can be heard in a new Canadian documentary of the same name, and
