INDIE-winning guitar/cittern/mandolin master creates magical music from Celtic and Appalachian traditions. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Traditional Folk, WORLD: Celtic Details: Since his initial rise to prominence with the INDIE Award-winning world-folk trio Helicon, Robin Bullock has established a reputation as one of America's finest instrumentalists on acoustic guitar, cittern and mandolin. His twin passions for Celtic and Appalachian traditions, coupled with his fertile imagination as a composer and arranger, result in a musical vision "filled with grace and charm and warmth and insight" (Bluegrass Unlimited). For his sixth solo recording, Robin takes a direct approach, casting his spell over the listener with introspective solo performances and stripped-down acoustic ensemble arrangements. The ageless melodies of Ireland, Scotland and Appalachia, together with some of Robin's most inspired compositions, create a world of enchantment indeed. Includes concert favorites "First Light in the Mountains," "Shenandoah," and Robin's thunderous mandolin tour-de-force "Bonaparte's Retreat." "In the tight-wire game of solo acoustic, there's no escaping the core issue: How's your touch? Your tone? Your time? Just how well CAN you play? Masterfully, if you're Robin Bullock." - Guitar Player "A rare combination of technical virtuosity and emotional nuance...Robin Bullock has a deep appreciation of the power of music to touch people's hearts, and the skills to make that happen when he plays." - Dirty Linen, the Magazine of Folk and World Music "Robin Bullock's inspirational quotient is quite a powerhouse...the real spark of blending both Celtic and American folk styles provides a momentous result." - Folk Roots "Celtic guitar god." - Baltimore City Paper
