Britpop, Wave and Roll 10 MP3 Songs POP: British Pop, POP: New Wave Details: Artist Information Instrumentation Christopher O'Gorman - Vocals The Black Cat - Bass Guitar Josh Harrison - Drums Matthieu - Lead Guitar Marcus Arvan - Rhythm Guitar Biography With an attention-grabbing stage presence, The Year of Acceleration have a repertoire of original songs crafted with classic hooks, modern appeal and pop sensibility. They tell stories of love won and lost with the lofty idealism of early U2, the melancholia of Echo and the Bunnymen and the darkness-tinged fun of Factory Records. After being told that it was their "Year of Acceleration" brothers and founding members Christopher (vocals) and Scott "The Black Cat" (bass) began work on what would become the Year of Acceleration. Josh (drums), Marcus and Matthieu (guitars) soon followed to complete the lineup. The Years self-produced debut LP "Used to Have a Life," has garnered accolades from fans and industry professionals alike. Singles are in regular rotation on radio stations domestically and around the world. Songs such as Prescription Medicine, Static On A Record, and Can I Die To This have received attention and won awards in such venues as Garageband, Myspace, and NME. The Year of Acceleration have proven to be just what audiences crave. Thousands of fans are witnessing the genius and broad appeal of The Year. They have been hand picked to share the stage with such acclaimed acts as, OK GO!, Frausdots, Ambulette, The Strays, Long-view, and She Wants Revenge.
