Satisfaction By Candie Keane After an electrifying kiss on the rooftop of a burning building, customarily cool psychologist Eden Chapman is having a hard time explaining why she has a case of the hots for Detective Nicholas Ricco. Especially since he blames her for a case of murder. Eden never meant for her research to be used in trial to free a murder suspect. Determined to right her wrong, she sets off through the lurid streets of New Orleans to catch a killer. Soon she is running into the arms of a man whose sexual magnetism leaves her breathless, a man who happens to despise her. As the danger intensifies, so does the heat between them. Physically and emotionally scarred from his last case, Nick is a rogue investigator bent on re-arresting a killer. Getting rid of the stubborn psychologist is his first objective. He can't keep her safe and concentrate on the case, not when his scarred hands ache to stroke her silky skin, not when his body aches to join with hers and not when a killer waits to strike again, this time with Eden as the target.
