

Life's Highest Goal - B? Yin R?

LIFE'S HIGHEST GOAL In this book the author shows not only what is without question the highest goal that human beings can achieve in mortal life, but also how that timeless goal can be attained, so long as the resources of the physical body still offer the means to perform the "work," which ceases when "the night has come." The goal on which this book sheds light surpasses all other quests in temporal existence in that its attainment, the recovery of conscious self-awareness in the Spirit's realm, transforms the vague belief in some eternal life into an objective, permanent experience. While all material goals, however mighty and ambitious, are limited in space and time, conscious self-awareness in the Spirit, is not affected by the laws of matter. As in his other works, the author also here illuminates the structure of spiritual reality, and offers practical advice how that reality may be discovered in one's daily life, which thus gains meaning and enlightened purpose. Contents: Preface. 1. The Call of the Spirit. 2. The Two Paths. 3. On Seeking and Finding. 4. The radiance of Eternal Light. 5. The Colors of Eternal Light. 6. On the Nature of the Highest Goal. 7.
