A New York based film director Margret Harris is currently doing a documentary on him which has been compiled over the last three years and is scheduled to be completed by the end of 2005. The documentary is about his life, and how he got started in the music business, how he balanced the business end and the performing end of his duties for Caesars Pocono Resorts and fit the time to work on a CD. He recently performed cuts from the CD at the Soul Cafe in New York City, as guest Artist for Shaila of Kiss FM New York City. Several stations are playing songs from the CD. He was interviewed by Jeff Gordon live on radio station Magic 93 of Northeastern Pennsylvania Byrd Pressley is featured with URBAN NETWORK Magazine. Urban Network has been a critical resource of information for urban music industry executives, radio. This is a quote taken directly from their publication: "Up and coming singer/songwriter Pressley evokes the solid soul-pop balladry of yore with this impressive indie entry. His music is like Lionel Richie meets Christopher Cross in a rowboat on a still lake. 6 of the 8 songs like the title track (f/ Kim Waters on sax),

"He Could Never Love You" and the sorrowful "I'm Lonely" are as heart-onsleeve as love songs come. But just to show he's not hopelessly whipped, Byrd also kicks the soulful "Show Me" and "Outta Here," a funky, drums-driven kiss-off." Byrd's new CD has won two awards at Virginia's 1st Annual R&B Awards Show He was chosen Favorite Male Artist and Favorite Soul Single. He is featured in a new movie titled No "One Will Ever Know" The new movie is being aired in Film Festivals around the world.
