Tight female harmonies rooted in the bluegrass and country tradition, with an original flavor. Inspired by Appalachia and influenced by today. 8 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Bluegrass Details: DEHLIA LOW Dehlia Low is a new Asheville-based band focused on early country, bluegrass, and original music. Their songs feature hard-hitting vocals with tight harmonies backed up beautifully by masterful dobro and mandolin playing, lively fiddling, and a booming upright bass. Dehlia Low performs original songs as well as classic and modern bluegrass and old country numbers influenced strongly by Hazel Dickens, the Stanley Brothers, James King, and others. For Booking: email dehlialow@gmail.com BAND BIO Anya Hinkle, originally from Blacksburg, Virginia, is a powerful and soulful country vocalist and spirited fiddler. Anya has been singing and playing fiddle and guitar since childhood. Dehlia Low performs a number of Anya's original songs. Aaron Ballance hails from Winston-Salem, North Carolina, and since moving to Asheville in 2006 has recently been an in-demand studio musician there on dobro and pedal steel. Aaron has been playing music since he was 13 and has been involved in many different musical collaboratives. He contributes original instrumentals and vocal songs to the group. Stacy Claude, on guitar and vocals, of South Carolina started singing in church choirs as a child, which eventually led to her interest in the guitar and acoustic music. She has performed and recorded in Utah and Colorado with Blue String Theory, and in the Asheville area with Blue Roan. Her clear and strong singing brings down the house and she contributes a number of original songs to Dehlia's set list. Bryan Clendenin of Hurricane, West Virginia is incredibly versatile and talented on mandolin and also contributes vocals and original music to Dehlia Low. Bryan has been playing mandolin for over 10 years and has performed all over the Colorado region with his bluegrass band The Stanley Tones. In 2007 Bryan decided to return to his roots in Appalachia and bring his talents to Dehlia. Scott Shuffler, originally from Morganton, NC holds down the timing on upright bass. Scott's roots in bluegrass run deep, as his uncles George and John Shuffler spent many years recording and traveling with The Stanley Brothers. After performing in a few rock bands around the Morganton and Greensboro area, he decided to follow his heritage and give a full time commitment to bluegrass in 2006.
