"Lush, brawny acoustic folk...country-tinged tunes...evoking Patty Griffin, Louise Taylor and Kathleen Edwards." For roadtrips and cafes and the sometimes heavy-hearted. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Joni, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: "Mobius, Small's latest album, eleven tracks of unswerving grace, a record to hear often...Her vocals splinter and kick just as they soothe..." --Brandon Hoffmann, Minnesota's Ripsaw Magazine All original songs. Acoustic guitar and vocals accompanied by light baritone guitar, percussion, bass, hammond organ and splashes of mandolin and accordion. For listening, IF YOU LIKE... Rootsy, AMERICANA-FOLK: start with Minnesota, Alibi, 57 Chevy, 60 Words for Water Lighter, FOLK-POP: try Figaro, Mile and Mile, Mobius Darker, SCRATCHY ACOUSTIC songs (sparse and full band): play Tainted Consolation, Not Possible, Dangerous Devotion, A Wonderful Life * * * Mobius features "57 Chevy," "Figaro," and "Minnesota," heard live on "A Prairie Home Companion" with Garrison Keillor on April 24, 2004. * * * Minnesota ...We came across our lost love Like a dusty box of clothes We tried them on for old times But we both know It's a textbook situation Of love and letting go How we reach out in the darkest hours For what we once had For what we once had known... * * * Figaro Everybody's got a broken heart somewhere Everybody wears a few chips on their shoulders We're all trying to make things mend So maybe someday we can have a happy ending Like Figaro... * * * Dangerous Devotion I think you are an ocean, but I dare not explore I know that I'm better off here on the shore When I look in your eyes, I can tell what you're thinking You think it's just fear But I would only be a sinking ship Just a sinking ship... If I were an island or a continent You would still be the Ocean Mightier than all of it And I would be a sinking ship... * * * 57 Chevy ...You spent too long in nobody's care And all those years lead you down Into a deep disrepair There were dreams that you had About long drives into the evening But this life hit you hard But if you bring me your broken-down heart I will my best to restart it... * * * Tainted Consolation A giving soul bears a guilty heart Forever asking 'have I done my part' Takes not comfort from a real good start Just a tainted consolation Your love it was a heavy stone That built me up and then knocked me down At least now I know I'm better off alone But it's a tainted consolation... * * * Not Possible You thought that it not possible That I would walk away That in a flooding vessel I would be the one who stayed I have waited through good intentions And I have waded through rising water Your promises sink to the bottom And I don't want them Pulling me under * * * 60 Words for Water If you listen to the whispers Of the world's thirsty souls 60 words for water is what they'll tell you If you don't already know... Already at my young age I have habits that I wish were only phases I don't know, I don't know why I'll see what happens when the rag is wrung dry... * * * Alibi You asked me what was wrong I searched for some reply To sweep the tracks of where my thoughts had gone I gave my mind an alibi... * * * A Wonderful Life I'm floating around a little New England pond And the bright stars in the sky look like all of America's little towns As if I'm flying over, the way I do in my dreams One little back kick and I'm off, it's easy Then I think maybe that glimmer is God Giving the rundown to Clarence So he can come down to convince me To go on and stick with it But I know, it's a wonderful life And more or less, I would never deny it I know... * * * Mobius I wish your love could be the love I wish my heart was meant for you I wish we both had better reasons For why we're only passing through I have a ribbon around my finger Heart strings wound around my chest No end and no beginning A tangle fit for Mobius * * * Check out Jerree's earlier solo acoustic album entitled "Sleeping Giant."
