10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock Details: CHRISTMAS ALL YEAR THROUGH The Stories Behind the Songs If We Listen The message in this original is about the beginning of Advent. To reassure us that we have hope in all things if we listen for and to the voice of God in His son Jesus. It is meant to be an uplifting reminder that Jesus is coming and is based upon Isaiah 2:2-5. A Child Shall Lead This song is simplistic in its approach to the teachings of the great prophet Isaiah in Chapter 11:6-7. It is one of my favorite songs of the season. The original version can be heard on one of my favorite Christmas albums, "A Child Shall Lead" by The Interior Castle. A Promise Kept As Mary sits beside her newborn son, she sings a song of thanksgiving and praise for what the Lord has bestowed upon her. We find the beginning of her beautiful story in the book of Luke 1:46-49.

Joseph's Song On this album you are most blessed to be listening to Patrick Mulhern's moving rendition of this unusual Christmas song. All too rarely do we get a chance to hear from Joseph in the Christmas story. I'm certain songwriter, Michael Card captured Joseph's awe and wonder in this beautiful bit of music and Patrick has brought it to life. Were You There on that Christmas Night? This is one of the most beautiful Christmas songs I know. When I first found my way back to church after a 20 year absence and subsequently found my way to music ministry, this was one of the first of the "new" Christmas songs I learned. The question remains, if we were there when Jesus was born, would we have known who he was? Night of Silence/Silent Night Night of Silence was written to be performed with Silent Night. I love the imagery created in this beautiful song about the night Jesus came into the world. The blending with Silent Night only adds to the gentle sweetness of this expression of this great birth. Humble Gathering

With humility we approach the manger. We kneel before Him, even though he is but a small baby, we understand and recognize His kingly majesty. The voices all join in on this song to joyfully extol the birth of Jesus. O Come All Ye Faithful Adeste Fidelis has long been one of my all time favorite Christmas hymns. Jim Cosgrove's children's choir on "Songs of the Incarnation" provided the inspiration for this contemporary upbeat arrangement of the timeless classic. The Magic of Christmas Day The subtitle of this song is "God Bless Us Everyone". The message in the music is to bless us all; God doesn't discriminate; if we open our hearts the Spirit will indeed come to us. Christmas All Year Through When the love of God comes into your heart it's a gift unlike any other. God's love is forever and the birth of His son, that Love brought to Earth, should be celebrated all year long, not only on Christmas day or during the Christmas season. About Lynn Geyer Singer and songwriter, Lynn Geyer, presents uplifting music for use in Christian settings. Lynn develops youth programs, such as her nationally recognized "Journey to Forgiveness", an examination of conscience. Much of her ministry is devoted to the power of forgiveness and healing. Her easy alto lends itself to quiet services using traditional or contemporary music as well as charismatic prayer meetings. Lynn has recorded four albums. "Music of the Light", her first solo project, was released in January, 2001. The title track received a Unity Award from UCMVA as Praise and Worship Song of the Year 2001. She has performed in countless churches on the east coast, as well as in conferences throughout the US, Canada, Spain, Italy, Australia, Germany and Brazil. Her latest project is "Christmas All Year Through", a collection of Advent and Christmas songs. She's the President of CAM, the Catholic Association of Music, founded by John Michael Talbot providing guidance for Catholic musicians in public ministry.
