At 18 he joined the Marines and served in Vietnam and came back full of ROCK and ROLL and the BLUES. He formed a four piece band and began writing songs, not that NASHVILLE formula CRAP, but songs to fit the gigs, rowdy TEXAS HONKY TONKS. He was one of the original REBELS of the TEXAS MUSIC REVOLUTION of the late 70s and his songs could be heard on juke boxes around the country. FOSTER'S original tunes and the CD contains some of the hottest players in Texas, Blues Guitarist BUGS HENDERSON, C&W session man and band leader, BRENT ROZELL, COUNTRY DONNIE MAC on bass, JAS STEPHENS of the SMOKIN JOE KUBEC BAND on drums, and R.D. on harp.
