"Just a few more hours" and twelve songs later and now there's a CD. Without you I'd still be talking about making a CD some day. Thanks for believing in me and being my biggest fan. Steve E., you are the man! It was a true pleasure and honor to work with you. I can't thank you enough for your professionalism, counsel, and sense of humor. I'd never work with anyone else. Gil And Ricky, the best rhythm section in Hawaii. You guys are incredible. Thanks for bringing my music to life. John V., for the excellent guitar work. Lindsay S., for resurrecting "I Wrote A Letter." My parents, for their unconditional love and support. Anyone and everyone who ever really listened to my music and encouraged this endeavor. PUPPIES AND BABIES Puppies and Babies A walk in the park Fat man asleep in the grass and it's way before dark White folks wearing their red skin like they've never seen the sun before You and me we seek some shelter find this little place on the floor I don't know what we're doing today I don't mind well I'm happy with you right here in the shade Too bad this day has to end but the sundown won't make me sad 'Cause once again I see you're just so good for me baby and You're the best I ever had Puppies and babies all shiny and new And every time I see them lately you know it brings me to you Sitting by the lakeside laughing trying to make the time stand still The clock it goes but we all know there are just some things that time can't kill I don't know what we're doing today I don't mind well I'm happy with you right here in the shade Too bad this day has to end but the sundown won't make me sad 'Cause once again I see you're just so good for me baby and You're the best I ever had ; )
