Spencer Eaves is a busy designer who spends more time thinking about his next shoot than his love life, and more time arguing with his assistant, Katy, than he spends looking for Mr. Right. He meets Alex while shopping for the perfect desk for his next magazine spread, and when he can't stop thinking about Alex days later, returns to ask him out. The sparks are instant, and the whole world seems to take on a golden glow until Christmas starts to loom closer, and Alex's cheerful openness is replaced by fear that sends him running. Spencer isn't willing to give up on them, even when Alex reveals the secret that might keep them apart for good. They have until Christmas to unravel the spell holding power over Alex, but with time running out it may take the magic of a wish, and some help from Santa himself, to make it a Merry Christmas.
