

Lavender

This collection of 9 minimalist compositions was composed and recorded sometime between 1998 and the year 2001. All tracks except for the title track are based on an A dominant 7 tonality. These tracks are remarkable because they represent my first attempt to infuse continuity into a collection by creating a predetermined style, and then working within those set parameters. The exception here is the title track "Lavender", which was added to provide some harmonic relief to an otherwise purposely static harmonic landscape. The video linked here highlights track no. 8 "A907" in its entirety. This collection of instrumental electronic music is well suited for meditation, relaxation and the study of minimalist compositional technique.. Total Time: 33 minutes
