This is the soundtrack is from Courting Condi, a musical docu-tragi-comedy part Borat, part Fahrenheit 9/11, part Mamma Mia! -- follows a love-struck souls hilarious, emotionally engaging, and ultimately shocking quest to woo Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice. A spin on the Rapunzel fairy-tale, this unique romantic/political/biographic feature follows Devin Ratray, a portly musician, former child actor (famed as Buzz in Home Alone), and besotted admirer of Condi, as he prepares to meet her and win her heart. As Devin travels the country, learning more about the great lady from those who know her, Courting Condi tells the life story of one of our eras most inspiring, enigmatic, and controversial figures. This film is a timely and classic love story, punctuated by witty and emotional songs. Music is a cornerstone of the film. Musical directors, Sebastian Doggart and Sasha Gordon, put together a stellar soundtrack, and a powerful original score. At the musical heart of the film are songs sung by Devin. They are composed by Carol Connors (two-time Oscar-nominated composer of 'Rocky' and the 'Rescuers'); Kerry Shaw (Ansty Cowfold), Brix Smith (singer/songwriter from the legendary British post-punk band, The Fall) and Glenn Gregory (Heaven 17), Devin himself, and others.
