Country, Bluegrass, Southern Gospel mix. 12 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Country Gospel, COUNTRY: Traditional Country Details: Born and raised in the Pasco Washington area, Bruce Mullen has had a long distinguished Career in the Country Music industry. As a young lad right out of High School he had a recording Contract with Dot Records with Bonnie Guitar as his producer. He wrote Auctioneers Love and made it into the top of the charts for 6 weeks. He has performed with numerous great Country artists such as Jerry Lee Lewis, and Freddy Hart. At one time he was contracted to Buck Owens enterprises, and has recorded for Capital Records in Hollywood. Bruce also spent sevaral summers entertaining at Buckskin Joes in Colorado, and winters in the Mining Camps in Arizona much to the delight of all who went to see and hear him perform his own songs and numerous impersonations. Then around the year of 2000, he moved back to the Family Ranch in the Deep Lake Area just outside of Colville, WA. He then started performing around the Local area for a variety of occasions. Bruce was joined a few years ago by his wife Betsy who enjoys helping him out by singing harmony and the occasional solo. At about that time he started writing county gospel songs. We hope you enjoy our new CD "ONLY ONE WAY". Bruce and Betsy Mullen
