Angelic soprano voice accompanied by a myriad of ethereal piano compositions, electro-pop, darkwave, and ethnic influences that paint a rich cascade of emotional depth. Presented in a beautiful Digipak format. 8 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover, ELECTRONIC: Industrial Details: Best known for her vocal and writing contributions to the now defunct atmospheric heavy metal group, Rain Fell Within, Dawn has been concentrating on her own solo work for the past several years. In 2001 Dawn published her first debut release as a limited edition CDR production through The Fossil Dungeon. Sold-out quickly, this release gathered Dawn a spot on Zillo Magazine's "Heavenly Voices" compilation series and fostered many wonderful reviews among publications and fans of ethereal and vocal music worldwide. In 2004, Dawn's first full-length solo debut, "Dancing, Dreaming, Longing..." witnessed her collaboration with the Riddick brothers (The Soil Bleeds Black) in creating an exhibition of Dawn's angelic soprano voice accompanied by a myriad of ethereal piano compositions, electro-pop, darkwave, and ethnic influences painting a rich cascade of emotional depth. Aside from her partnership with The Fossil Dungeon, Dawn is also working with album producer Lance Bendiksen, known for his work with artists like Sara McLachlan, The Cowboy Junkies, The Pretenders, and INXS. Dawn has also showcased her voice with various guest appearances in other bands such as Witch-Hunt (death metal) and The Soil Bleeds Black (medieval music). She has worked alongside other notable musicians like Mary of Garden of Shadows (heavy metal) and Jennifer of Autumn Tears (neo-classical).
