Lyrics are available directly from the artist by e-mail upon request. Take Care of You (excerpt) Tonight my love I write this song, Just so you can sing along, And our lives be a symphony for God. Walking through life with your love, And the Lord my God above, There's no place that I would rather be. It seems that God gave you to me, Just to help and set me free, From walking through this world all alone. All alone, all alone, all alone till you came along, All alone, all alone, all alone till you came along. " And a man shall leave his mother, And a woman leave her home, And the two shall be joined as one, And before the Lord God they shall become one flesh. In all things a Christian marriage, Is to be the mirror image of the Church, And in all things they are to walk upright before God, As one body. And as Christ is the head of the Church, So is the husband the head of the wife, And as Christ gave himself fully, even unto death, So shall the husband give for the wife....." Yes God it seems gave you to me, And he and I we both agree, We are going to take care of you,.....
