Folk pop original renditions of the ten Buddhist qualities that lead to contentment 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: Folk Pop Details: Melodic and warm, full of beauty and joy, Commentary on Perfections of the Heart is a folk-rock song cycle based on the Buddhist paramis, qualities that bring happiness to the heart. Eve Decker is a founding member of the nationally acclaimed feminist folk trio Rebecca Riots. Conceived while she was on a three-month silent retreat in 2003, the songs on Commentary on Perfections of the Heart reflect Eve's lifelong desire to create music that awakens compassion and eases suffering. Commentary on Perfections of the Heart was produced by Eve and her brother Ben Decker, and features performances by Lisa Zeiler and Andrea Prichett (Rebecca Riots), Patty Spiglanin (Naked Barbies), Kathy Kallick, keyboardist Julie Wolf (Indigo Girls, Bruce Cockburn, Ani DiFranco), guitarist Nina Gerber (Kate Wolf, Jerry Jeff Walker, Karla Bonoff), mandolin player Mike Marshall (David Grisman, Bela Fleck, Yo Yo Ma, Chris Thile), percussionist Michaelle Goerlitz (Wild Mango, Blazing Redheads), drummer Michael Urbano (John Hiatt, Sheryl Crow), and others.
