This CD contains material from two of her New York Cabaret shows: "But Not for Me" and I Always wanted to be a Fifth Dimension," a funny look at growing up in New Jersey with a big voice and big dreams, (and maybe even big hair...). Janet's style is a mix of 70's rock and a lot of opera lessons in the 80's. Her clean, crisp vocals combine with creative jazz/theatre piano licks from Mike Tornick and folk/rock bassist Tony Soll. The music is an eclectic mix of early rock, jazz, blues and even opera. This CD is the winner of the Stonewall Pride in the Arts award for 2003!
