DOWNLOAD HERE

Early work by Lee Murdock, featuring classical and ragtime instrumentals, and "The Ghost in Blue" his first historical ballad, a Civil War ghost story from Illinois. CD-R limited availability. Also available on I-Tunes. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, CLASSICAL: Traditional Details: Lee Murdock's second CD, released in 1983 (check out that photo!!). Early work, yet there are some rare gems on this CD -- the instrumental guitar work shines, with "Maple Leaf Rag" and the Bach Minuet, plus two original compositions by Murdock, the ethereal title cut and "Bouncing on the Bed." Also features Lee's first original historical ballad, "The Ghost in Blue," the true story of James Alfred Davis, a sixteen year old resident of "Barrington Station" in Illinois (now Barrington), who went off to fight in the Civil War, the War Between the States, and returned home in a mysterious fashion at the moment of his death.
