This is where the pen Pimps the paper, the real separate from the fake, where hustlers grind all night and playas ball till they fall, H-Town's finest representa. 16 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style Details: Screwston Texas A.K.A. Houston This is where the pen Pimps the paper, the real separated from the fake, where hustlers grind all night and playas ball till they fall. It's hip hop, better yet, it's rap at it's tip top. It's more than a song talking about what car you drive, or how many diamonds you got, BUT it's the VOICE of the streets, of the ghetto child. The voice of who America tries to reject and put down. It is the trials and tribulations, the hard times, the gangsta love, it's about trying to keep FAITH, when you can't see the tree from the forest And when it's all said and done, the strong survive-- Keep yo' head up! M.O.B. is H-Town's best kept secret with a smooth Southern rap style who are hot and up coming on the rap scene! This Album is a compilation of various artist which all grew up together from the same hood known as Hiram Clarke that kept it real. This is a well known hood from the South Side of H-town which produced artist such as: Big Mellow, Big Steve, and Woss Ness. All of these songs produced on the album were influenced from what they been through in there walk and talk in these notorious streets. The number 3 track On The Rise was dedicated to Vince Young who is also from Hiram Clarke so if you're looking for some real talk straight from the streets -hit! Then no need to look any further!
