Folk, pop, rock, country, pleasantly mishmashed... Good music for driving, or sitting outside on the porch, or looking out your bedroom window at the snow. 11 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Rock, POP: 70's Pop Details: Rebecca was born in L.A. and surely bears its musical imprints. Early Bangles, early Linda Ronstadt, a little Tom Petty, the DeFranco family: you'll find all that here. But there's also a hefty dose of NY urban Laura-Nyro-type cobblestone/airshaft vibes, 'cause that's where she lives now (well, actually, New Jersey). And there's something Canadian there too, although she's never spent more than 5 days there. But it's telling that during those 5 days, she first heard Shania Twain.
