East Coast (the New, New York) style Hip Hop for those who want to bang something in the cars or in their ipods. 6 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: Sin began writing raps at the age of 13 and continued to hone his skills at John Jay High School through his conquests during lunchroom and hallway battles, and also as a member of a group called Ill Connection. It is no surprise to see that Sin lists his favorite emcees as Rakim, Kool G Rap, KRS One, Big Daddy Kane, Jay Z, Nas, and Biggie, any of whom can arguably be called the Greatest Rapper of All Time. A lot is being made of the "New, New York" rappers, and you might as well put Sin's name in the mix. He is as lyrical as any of these rappers, and has the ability to make a song as well as the vets. Not only are Sin's writing skills exceptional, but his talents as a freestyler are on the remarkable side. You can usually find him in a cypher impressing even the most lyrical lyricists. A lot does not need to be said about Sin because his music speaks for itself! Take a listen to his songs, and you are sure to see that the music will exceed all expectations.
