Traditional harp music of Ireland, Scotland and Wales 13 MP3 Songs WORLD: Celtic, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: Thomas Doc Grauzer is a self-taught harper and storyteller of the Irish tradition, including in his repertoire a variety of stately airs, lively dance tunes, and amusing anecdotes about the tunes, and their history. There are elements of both the elegant harping tradition and the much more recent tradition of the pub session in his performance. He is a versatile performer, having played at a wide variety of Celtic and Renaissance Festivals, private parties and weddings, as well as numerous pubs and restaurants. Since 1997, he has had a continuing gig at Mother's Cafe and Garden in Austin, Texas, where he may be heard on Thursday and Friday evenings, and for Saturday brunch.
