A variety of traditional Celtic music and other oddities. Instruments include: harmonium, hammered dulcimer, tri-cone resonator guitar, mandolin, fiddle, acoustic guitars, harmonica, and bodhran. 15 MP3 Songs WORLD: Celtic, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: Formed in the mountains of Southern California, evolving from weekly Celtic jam sessions, Wake the Bard has become a force. Slowly but surely, a core group of talented musicians came together to perform at pubs, parties, special events, and sessions all around the region. The group plays a variety of unique instruments, which include a harmonium, hammered dulcimer, tri-cone resonator guitar, mandolin, fiddle, acoustic guitars, harmonica, and bodhran. From the fast harmonium fingering on Galway Hornpipe, fancy hammered dulcimer playing on Kid on the Mountain, to the mandolin and vocals on Walk in the Irish Rain, this CD is joy to play. Do people like Wake the Bard? You decide.... "The band was great. Sensed the crowdWas able to accompany Celtic dancers. Everything asked of them they did. Their music made our event fantastic. Would highly recommend to anyone." --Debra H. Santa Ana, CA 3/17/2006 Yes, Wake the Bard isat it again.
