All Bree McInnes has to do is make it through the summer without anyone from her hometown discovering her secrets. And then she is so out of here. Because running away is what this single mom does best. Keeping a low profile turns out to be harder than Bree thought. Especially when Professor Parker Ellison--her sexy boss and a famous orchid hunter--begins to fall in love. With her! But between her own determination to skip town and Parker's aversion to being trapped in a "relationship," they could be over before they even start. And that's too bad, since exploring some home-style adventure could be exactly what her elusive bachelor needs.
