After All has developed a strong and diverse following playing venues like Hard Rock Live-Orlando, House of Blues--Orlando and most every venue in North Florida, Miami and Georgia markets. Now pared down to a powerful trio of acoustic/electric guitar, bass and drums, After All has release their first self titled CD. Their outspoken harmonies are outstanding and the songs furrow in the possible hit category. Since the release of their long awaited CD, After All has gained some interest with MTV Productions to use their songs on a new MTV program. The band eventually hopes to do a live performance in New York. A close contact in New York is also in talks with Sony Music and hopes to develop some further interest. Sales of their CD have sky rocketed since its release. After All has received radio play on most every major college radio station across the U.S. and Europe.
