Elephant energy...Cheesecake softness...Ecstatic garbage love. 15 MP3 Songs ROCK: Americana, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Chuck...began playing guitar in 1979began writing songs in 1982has been around the block a few times This style of his can be described as a hybrid of the various genres to which he's been exposed. Whether a solo performer or frontman for The National Geoffrey, this "Chuck" maintains a gripping presence and an intimate intensity that stem from the highly personal contents of his songs. Although a relative unknown, he has performed in many areas around North America, (namely the Southeastern US and Maritime Canada), Europe (Edinburgh, Antwerp, Amsterdam etc) and even in Turkey. Yeah, he's been around the block, trampled and hung out to dry...more than once! After one listens for awhile it becomes clear that "alternative folk anger" doesn't really iron out the issue of what to call his style. But I guess it will do for now. Maybe a few remarks heard during or after performances will help... "...some of your stuff, the way you play, reminds me of Chris Whitley. Do you know him?" - Antwerp, Belgium "...You listened to a lot of Zeppelin as a kid, eh?" - Pensacola, FL "...That sounds a lot like the Wallflowers or Son Volt or...something..." - Halifax, NS "...Do you have anything out yet?" - Halifax "...Say Chuck, do you think you could tone it down a bit?" - Fairhope, AL "...What the hell are you doing playing in a coffeehouse?" - Perdido Key, FL "...Where are you FROM?!?" - Oshkosh, WI "...Your music is very passionate." - Edinburgh, Scotland Of course, in the end it is between the listener and the song. Take a listen and get back to me in the mourning. UPDATE: things are brewing in a small North Georgia cabin. Look for something very early in 2005...something different...Cape Wrath has been resurrected and we at The Geoff will Shun the Pornbelly once and for all...
