Spanish Melodic Rock/Pop. Acoustic, electric and digital sounds. The voice sound is very unique and personal. There is a lot of piano going on. 11 MP3 Songs LATIN: Latin Pop, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Diegos first musical steps were taken at the age of 8 when he started playing on his grandmother's piano in Buenos Aires, Argentina. He was born to a musical family which encouraged his talent from the beginning. Diego went on to earn a degree at the Music conservatory of Avellaneda in his home town. He expanded his experience by playing with bands from all over the world and emersed himself in international sounds ranging from Jazz, Tango to Rock and Pop. Soon after he began singing and writing his own songs. Diego defines his music as Spanish Melodic Rock/Pop with lyrics and content that talk about life and love in a realistic and optimistic way. "I believe that eventhough life at times is tough, there's always a way to see it through." His very unique sound starts from the combination of piano and voice and extends to acoustic, electric and digital sounds. In 2006 Diego is promoting his CD "Desde Acá with shows in Buenos Aires, Argentina and Los Angeles. His songs are currently being played on popular radio stations in Argentina. He captivates his audience with worldly music that transcends language.
