Kelly Ricketts gives listeners a glimpse of her "private" life with an acoustic album that is honest, touching and soulful. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, FOLK: like Ani Details: Kelly grew up in New Castle, De and attended the University of Delaware. There at the University, Kelly met the wonderful and insane Todd Beauchamp and the two created the Kelly Ricketts band which gained great popularity and recorded Hourglass during their 3 year existence. After the KRB, Kelly was approached by a Philadelphia musician named Christine Havrilla, who offered an amazing opportunity to become an original member of the band 3 stories high. Kelly has been playing guitar for 9 years and has been writing music for equally as long. Her influences range from Andrew Lloyd Webber, to Francis Dunnery, Ani DiFranco, and R&B/Motown. Kelly has an appreciation for all music, and finds herself comfortable with versatility and change within the music world. Kelly met Adam through her day-job and hit it off instantly. She found they work extremely well together in making the music the best it can be, as well as giving it new life. Kelly and Adam have already released their first CD's Time Has Come, and Touching blue, Touching grey, and now with a storm of creative juices have now released "PRIVATE", Sept. 2006.
