Country Pop: If you like the depth and emotion of Martina McBride along with the fun side of Shania Twain and Gretchen Wilson, you will enjoy this album. 11 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Pop, COUNTRY: Modern Country Details: "Allow your ears to be refreshed with this great talent! Now sit back, be her guest and play her music!" -Legendary Nashville Producer Norro Wilson (Reba, Kenny Chesney etc.) The Garlands still remember Sherry as a young girl in east Tennessee singing and playing ukelele for family and friends at social gatherings. Soon the ukelele made way for a guitar which she taught herself to play. She spent many hours alone writing and singing. Some years later - along with family members - she began a career in outdoor advertising. Even having a successful business would not get music out of Sherry's mind. She continued to pursue her dream, writing songs and performing in nightclubs four nights a week. Realizing that music was her first love, Sherry did what she knew she had to do. She sold her share of the business to her partners, packed her bags and made the move to Nashville. For years Sherry has been honing her songwriting skills, co-writing with several renowned Nashville tunesmiths like Fred Koller Angel Eyes (Jeff Healey), Goin', Gone (Kathy Mattea) and Don Goodman Angels Among Us (Alabama), Ring On Her Finger, Time On Her Hands (Lee Greenwood, Reba McEntire) while getting to know producers such as Doug Grau (Little Texas) and Legendary producer Norro Wilson (Kenny Chesney, Reba McEntire, George Jones, Tammy Wynette, Sara Evans and Shania Twain). Sherry had airplay with a song produced by Norro Wilson Back On My Feet Again written by Annie Roboff and Bill LaBounty. As fate would have it, the first song Sherry learned to play on guitar The Most Beautiful Girl In The World was also co-written by Norro Wilson. Renowned vocal coach Gerald Arthur (whose clients have included the likes of Randy Travis and Reba McEntire) was so taken with Sherry's talent and attitude that he offered to coach her for three years - declining payment - before declaring her ready for the marketplace. Although Sherry is rooted in tradition she also has a pop appeal as her interests in music range from Patsy Cline, K.D. Lang to Celine Dion. Sherry has the sound, the songwriting ability, and the dedication to make her dream come true. It's no wonder all who meet and hear this gifted singer-songwriter agree that it's just a matter of time before Sherry Garland's goal becomes her reality.
