Intricate acoustic fingerpicking with an occasional Celtic flair. Beautiful, creative, innovative, toe-tapping, relaxing, dreamy and good for the soul. Acoustic guitar as it should be played and appreciated. 12 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Celtic New Age, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Canadian guitarist from Toronto, Canada with a finger-picking guitar style that is truly unique and creative. Musical influences come from a very diverse group of musicians such as Bruce Cockburn, Joni Mitchell, Jim Croce, Steve Howe, Steve Hackett, Trevor Rabin, Mark Knopfler, Dave Gilmour, Jimi Hendrix, James Taylor, B.B. King, Stevie Ray Vaughn and many others. Most of the guitar instrumentals on this new album "Bending Your Ear" have a subtle Celtic flavour both in rhythm and melodic tone. Several of these compositions are played in unique and unusual guitar tunings. The result is beautiful guitar chordings and sweet haunting melodies. The only song that is radically different is "Morning Mist" which is a journey into sound exploration with some keyboards and digital delay effects. The overall musical experience of this new CD is one not to be missed. Just sit back, relax and let this beautiful acoustic journey take you somewhere you've never been before. Peace.
