ROCK: Progressive Rock, ROCK: 90's Rock Details: CEDAR -N- SAGE Melodic, moody, love loneliness.. Cedar-N-Sage coined and captured the essence of "Desert Rock". A sound you "FEEL" driving at night-- wind on your face--a "fragrant" soundtrack of Past, Present, and Future. Cedar-N-Sage's 1st album "Feeling Dangerous" is love found, love lost and love hopeful! Recorded in LA, "Feeling Dangerous" has the help of Devin McBeth on drums, Jim Pulli on bass, and the help of a lot of friends on "After All". The band played a sold-out show at the Roxy in LA. The new album, "Reflection Pool" will be released in November 2005. The band moves past jazzier scenery with the addition of Earl McCool on bass and keyboards. The drums are programmed on "Diablo II", scaling the band down to (3) human members. Original members - guitarist and writer T Helmuth and D'Lorah on vocals, drum programming, percussion, keyboards, harmony vocals and writer. For a sneak preview of the new album's cover, check
