Electro-pop-gospel-funk with mirth and actual intelligence. 24 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: Suit Yourself, the debut album from Clubs Of Branches, brings an eclectic mixture of electro-pop-soul-funk-gospel-harmony-hip-hop the listener can enjoy. With superb vocals and hefty back beats, the music on Suit Yourself will evoke many emotions in the listener, often vascillating between profound thought and rampant hilarity. Joy, laughter and tears are all part of the journey one takes with the music of Clubs Of Branches on Suit Yourself. Hooray! Pop music is fun again...and relevant! Omaha, Nebraska-based Clubs Of Branches has been laying down the pop/gospel/funk since 2002. Coffee houses, clubs, churches and private parties are fair game for COB, and numerous sightings of them have been reported. Brothers Matt and Mike Geiler, along with their wives Jenn and Nicole, are the original tricksters of the electro-pop-soul-funk scene. Clubs Of Branches' expert song craftsmanship, musicality and hilarious stage antics draw the listener through peaks and valleys of emotion. With the 2004 release of Suit Yourself, Clubs Of Branches seeks to broaden the pop music horizon, and spread their soulful message of hope. Pop. Funk. Joy. Life. Clubs Of Branches.
