Related styles: COUNTRY: Americana, COUNTRY: Western Details: Steve Hoke is originally from the hills of North Carolina. An area renowned for a flourishing music scene, he was exposed to many different genres. Even after transplanting himself into the Virginia Mountains, he has continued to increase his exposure with new ideas and explorations. His repertoire runs the gamut from his traditional fiddle to screaming rock guitar. A lover of strings he is also an accomplished Luthier. His collection includes some unique instruments as well as beautifully styled traditionals. When he is not recording or building, Steve is also a much sought out instructor for anyone with a hunger to learn. Dave Eakin has spent years in the Shenandoah Valley honing his skills as a singer and songwriter. His knowledge and ability mirror his many musical influences. Finding inspiration in both prominent and obscure musicians, there is no question why he is a favorite in the Virginia music scene. Daves understanding of melodies and harmony not only makes him an excellent guitarist but a persuasive teacher to as well. Together these two well-paired men have begun to breathe life into the old time mountain music in which we are all rooted. Their playing style is traditional and harmonious. There words and melodies remind us all that its not just music, its a persons soul.
