Very silky, contemporary arrangements. 8 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, JAZZ: Free Jazz Details: Duane Tribune is a multi-instrumentalist whose primary instrument is guitar. His abilities have given him the opportunity to be exposed to and play many styles of music. Duane's journey began as a little boy who was fascinated with musical instruments. He began to experiment with various instruments in school. One day a friend introduced him to the guitar. From that day forward, Duane knew he had found the instrument that would help him fulfill his musical desires. Duane has traveled across the country as a full-time musician with various bands and has also worked as a session musician. His studio experiences have given him the opportunity to function as a producer and engineer. He currently operates a production facility from his home in Columbus Ohio. Duane also has a publishing/production company, Faith Movement Music, and is affiliated with BMI as a publisher and a writer. He is also an accomplished writer and arranger who writes, arranges, plays all the instruments, records and produces all his own material. After years of being a sideman, Duane has started to pursue a career as a solo artist. His debut CD titled "Spirit Dance", is in the Smooth Jazz genre. All of the material is written and produced by him. Duane's music reflects his musical abilities and his faith. The arrangements are strong and contemporary yet soothing to the listener. His debut CD truly reflects his appreciation and passion for music. He truly is the "Smooth Jazz Specialist".
