Details: Edmond Paul and Carol Sills are a New York City based vocal and guitar duo. They are proud to release their debut collaboration of primarily original songs that will immediately take you in with their eclectic mix of pop, jazz, and even a little new age to "spice the pot". One of their songs has been covered by jazz great Kenny Barron. While performing most of their own material, they also have recorded songs for other artists. "Between the Lines" is an album that your head will respect and your heart will remember.
