Elisa Nicolas, with her honeyed alto is both literate folkster and gorgeous pop songsmith. 10 MP3 Songs
FOLK: Alternative Folk, EASY LISTENING: Adult contemporary Show all album songs: Compass and a Pen Songs Details: Born in Canada, raised in Georgia and Ohio, Elisa Nicolas had the sound of Pop and Classical music in her ears from the time she was an infant. "My parents had everything from Lynn Anderson's 'Rose Garden' to the Beatles 'Sergeant Pepper.' I listened to all their great vocalist records like Ella Fitzgerald and Nat King Cole." Elisa's breathy alto brings to mind modern singers like Fiona Apple and Diana Krall. Richard Byrne of the St Louis Riverfront Times writes, "Elisa Nicolas writes and sings some of the classiest and breeziest music we have yet to hear... Nicolas sings her lush melodies with a subtle strength and [her songs] hypnotize as they wind as tight as a boa constrictor, to finish off the metaphor, they'll leave your breathless." Elisa Nicolas' voice has often been compared to Nina Simone, and like Simone, she defies categorization. But it is Elisa's considerable songwriting talent that sets her apart as an artist. A superb multi-instrumentalist, Nicolas' beautifully performed songs includes enigmatic tales of loss and love. Nicolas is a gem among current singer-songwriters. A literate and stubbornly unapologetic pop artist, Nicolas' music draws accolades from fellow musicians and critics alike. Elisa has shared national stages around the country with numerous artists including Over the Rhine, Sam Phillips and Jonatha Brooke. Elisa has appeared at numerous festival showcases including SXSW in Austin and the Mississippi River Music Festival in St Louis.
