PERRYMAN SINGER/SONGWRITER/MUSIC PRODUCER/CEO/ACTOR Enin was born in the windy city of Chicago, Illinois. He was reared in Clarksdale, Mississippi (The Home of the Blues). His vocal style encompasses an array of soulful R&B/Gospel blends, which reflect the creative culture of the Mississippi Delta. Singing in church since the tender age of five, his grandmother soon picked up that there was something different about him early on. Enin was quickly groomed for musical success upon graduating from Fresno High School in Fresno, California; where his family later relocated, he soon mastered all the areas of performing arts the school could offer. He quickly became a local rising star in the California Central valley winning local talent competitions and Community Theater events. After High school his life took a more patriotic role as he enlisted in the United States Army serving with honors in the Persian Gulf War of 1991. When it would seem all hope of stardom was doused, upon his return to the United States he focused all his creative energy on writing and recording songs and taking classes at Berklee College of Music in Boston, Massachusetts which helped lay his foundation for the music industry.
