See what others are saying, then check out the samples: Indie-Music.Com (USA): "...really good stuff...especially the vocals of founder and multi-instrumentalist John Devadasan Perinbam. ... There is something really special about this band... I hear Maiden, Priest, Metallica, and an eery vocal similarity at times to Soundgarden frontman Chris Cornell.....my wholehearted seal of support for this band. I'm impressed, to say the least... -Heidi Drockelman Krepusculum (Brazil) "...the powerful guitars groove of the NWOBHM with the 70s hard rock feeling, yes...it is a marvelous sensation, arena heavy metal rock, with great solos, rocknroll spirit and bluesy/epic vocals! ...renew all those emotions with its phenomenal music. Perfect act to open the tour gigs of LED ZEPs return, perfect act to open the tour gigs of WHITESNAKEs return and of course IAN GILLAN, SABBATH, etc. The incredible vocalist John Devadasan ... and his voice is marvelous...great interpretation of the songs...a lot of real feeling jump from the album, John is also a good bassist, influenced by Roger Glover! The other guys of the band are great musicians too, above all the talented guitarist Rob Gravelle, a king of the rockroll riffs and of the hard solos. Great 9 songs, where I highlight the impressive ones: "Roads to Glory", "Last Dance" "True Signs of Life". Hey man, listen to it now!" - Edgar Franco 'Ivory Knight is Canada's best kept secret' - Michael Dalakos, The Temple Of Metal, Greece Transcending The Mundane (USA) - Issue #21: "Another great Canadian band...Perinbam reminds me of a cross of Barren Cross' Mike Lee and Bruce Dickinson." - Brett Van Put More reviews and information available at our web site up-from-the-ashes.com, and more Ivory Knight information available at ivoryknight.com.
