A trucker comes back into the truck stop hes just left. Look what somebody left on my front seat. He tells the astonished waitress. Its a baby: a girl. Can you take her, maam he asks. I cant have passengers. The waitress agrees to take the child until her mother can be found. Days pass. Weeks. No one every claims the little girl and she grows up at the truck stop , filling truckers coffee cups and playing the jukebox with her tips. The years pass and she becomes a teenager. She stops singing along with Patsy Cline and Loretta Lynn. She becomes rebellious and one day she runs away. In San Francisco she becomes a punk-rocker. Then off to New York where she joins Pulsallama with Anne Magnusun, Wendy Wild other girls and becomes momentarily famous. But something is missing, and one lonely midnight she realizes what it is.
