

Mp3 Kambiz Mirzaei - Aadamaaye Kaaghazi (paper People)

DOWNLOAD HERE

Persian POP Music 7 MP3 Songs WORLD: Middle East, POP: Delicate Details: "Aadamaaye Kaaghazi" is a non-commercial compilation Persian POP CD produced by Kambiz Mirzaei in Toronto, Canada! "Aadamaaye Kaaghazi" offers more in depth lyrics, simpler and more expressive arrangements, less processing towards commercializing, and more live performances! There is no dance tracks on "Aadamaaye Kaaghazi"; songs are more "lyrics-based" than "groove-based". "Shahzad Sepanlou", well known Persian POP singer from Los Angeles has performed on two songs in this album; also, three other singers from Toronto have their first professionally recorded performances on five other tracks. While exploring different areas of Persian popular music, this Album is produced along the way of encouraging new potential Persian singers to start their first serious attempt of singing. Profits of this CD, if any, will go to organizations who defeat hunger in the world. Credits: All Songs, lyrics and arrangements: Kambiz Mirzaei Vocalists: Shahzad Sepanlou (Fear Rain) Kaveh Valaei (Paper People What You Mean To Me) Porya Etemadzadeh (Unwritten Tears) Banafsheh Behzadi (Memory) Nylon and Steel Guitars: Babak Amini (Rain, Unwritten) Marc Ganetakos (Memory) Bass Guitar: Peter Murray Electric Guitar: Marc Ganetakos (Tears, Paper People) Cello: Hector Moreno (Rain, Unwritten, Fear) Mahsa Ghassemi (What You Mean To Me) Violins: Members of University of Toronto's Symphonic Orchestra (special thanks to Sharon Lee) Taar: Reza Manbachi Flute: Ranaa Mireskandari Piano, Keyboard and Programming: Kambiz Mirzaei Recorded and Produced by Kambiz Mirzaei during 2005 in Toronto, Canada Mixed by Ted Onyszczak at Silvebirch Productions Studio Mastered by George Seara at Phase One Studios CD cover and booklet designed by Kambiz Mirzaei

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: